

Continuing Professional Development Log & Training Declaration for Blasters in British Columbia

Every year during the term of a blaster’s certificate, the blaster must receive at least 6 hours of continuing professional development (CPD) relating to blasting best practices. It is important for CPD hours to be verifiable (e.g., via a certificate of course completion, proof of attendance, etc.).

Use this log to document training as it occurs. When a blaster’s certification is up for renewal, the log should be reviewed and signed by the blaster and their employer/manager. Keep in mind that WorkSafeBC can request training records at any time to audit CPD.
